CENSUS DATA AVAILABLE ON S.C. SENATE REDISTRICTING WEBSITE

Columbia, S.C.-Today, following the release of the Census Bureau's data, the Senate Judiciary Committee's Redistricting Subcommittee will have South Carolina's congressional and State Senate districts' population statistics available for public access in an Excel spreadsheet on its website at <https://redistricting.scsenate.gov>.

The subcommittee concludes its series of initial public hearings to receive information concerning communities of interest around the State and interests to be considered in drawing State Senate and S.C. Congressional districts at Aiken Technical College from 6:30-8:30 p.m. today, August 12, 2021.

At the subcommittee's next meeting, it will develop guidelines for drawing districts as well as a public submissions policy to inform persons and organizations how they may submit plans for the subcommittee's consideration.

The subcommittee will have additional meetings following the public hearings. You may submit information to the subcommittee by mail at P.O. Box 142, Columbia, S.C. 29202 or email at redistricting@scsenate.gov.
